a warm welcome

Originally a country mansion, Les Rocquettes was built in 1765 on the outskirts of St Peter Port. In 1946 the house was first transformed into an hotel by the Johnson family who continued to own and run the hotel until 1996 when it was acquired by Sarnia Hotels, a family owned group of 3 hotels in Guernsey. Over the years new bedrooms have been added along with leisure facilities, a Function Suite and most recently the Oak Bar and Restaurant have been completed.

Situated well back from the road, the hotel is served by the local bus service, and is within walking distance of the town, the financial centre and Beau Sejour Leisure Centre. Should you bring your own car or hire one, car parking is available at the hotel.

A courtesy bus operates from the hotel to the town centre in the daytime, Monday to Saturday from April to October.

finest cuisine

A hot and cold breakfast buffet is served daily in the restaurant, or can be served in the comfort of the hotel bedroom, or even, if the weather permits taken outside on the terrace.

In the evening the Oak restaurant offers an a la carte menu that tantalizes the tastebuds with flavours and textures from around the world. In addition a three course set menu is offered which is automatically included for clients who choose to stay on half board basis. Our Seafood boards change regularly reflecting the day's catch from local waters.

Alternatively guests may choose to relax in the Oak Bar with a pint of traditional real ale, or a bottle of wine from our carefully selected list. Food is served throughout the day with items such as sweet chilli chicken skewers, or our selection of cheeses available mid afternoon. The menu offers dishes to suit all tastes including younger guests.

During the year, the restaurant and bar often host a local jazz band featuring special guests, or other local artists. From time to time, special theme weeks are also organised showcasing the cuisine and wines of other countries.
